HB1935 Paraphrase: HB1935, by Rep. Charles McCall, R-Atoka and Sen. Greg Treat, R-Oklahoma City, creates the Oklahoma Parental Choice Tax Credit Act. The bill states legislative intent. The bill defines applicable terms. The bill establishes a $7,500 tax credit per child for students in households with adjusted gross incomes of $250,000 or less that attend a private school accredited by the State Board of Education or another accrediting association or the amount of tuition and fees for the private school, whichever is less, and $1,000 per household for qualified expenses per taxpayer in each tax year if one or more eligible students is educated pursuant to the other means of education (homeschooled). It requires the taxpayer to retain all receipts of qualified expenses as proof of the amounts paid each tax year the credit is claimed and to submit them to the Oklahoma Tax Commission upon request. It permits the commission to prescribe forms for purposes of claiming the credits . It requires the commission to create a form for the purpose of allowing taxpayers to request that the credit amount be advanced to the taxpayer in two installments of not more than $3,750 per semester or the amount of tuition and fees for the private school, whichever is less. It requires eligible taxpayers who submit the form and qualify for an advance to be approved and paid within 60 days of submitting the prescribed form. The bill permits students to accept a scholarship from the Lindsey Nicole Henry Scholarships for Students with Disabilities Program participating in the Oklahoma Parental Choice Tax Credit Program. The bill authorizes the Tax Commission to conduct an audit or contract for the auditing of receipts for qualified expenses submitted. It authorizes the Tax Commission to recapture the credits on a prorated basis if an audit shows that the credit was claimed for expenditures that were not qualified expenses or it finds that the taxpayer has claimed an eligible student who no longer attends a private school or has enrolled in a public school in the state. The bill requires the tax credit to be reduced proportionately to the reduction in the amount of money appropriated to the State Board of Education in the event of a revenue failure. The bill establishes requirements for taxpayers claiming the credits. The bill requires the State Department of Education to implement a commercially viable, cost-effective, and user-friendly system for users to publicly rate, review, and share information about education service providers. It requires the Tax Commission to coordinate with the State Department of Education to develop a process to review student enrollment information in order to verify that an eligible student who is claimed by a taxpayer receiving a tax credit is not enrolled in a public school in the state. It requires taxpayers be permitted to intervene for the purposes of defending the Oklahoma Parental Choice Tax Credit Program's constitutionality if it is challenged. The bill provides the act is not severable. The bill requires HB2775 to become effective in order for it to be effective.
